The Story of Friendship Hall

The tall, white building just south of the parking lot for the First Baptist Church of New Market has a varied history. The original building once served as the office of the Piscataway Township Tax Collector. The Day family ran a Print Shop, and Ernie Day ran a Fire Equipment Company in the basement of the building. It was the location of the first office of The PD Review. It also became the meeting place for the first Boy Scout troop in New Market, Troop 23. There was a bowling alley at the rear of the building.

When the New Market Baptist Church, acquired Friendship Hall, it became a gathering place for families, with activities such as "Mystery Make It" night. Rev. Clayton Maud would organize "surprise" projects for children and families to build for gifts. Dances were held and movies were shown. Sunday school was also held in the building.

One day, on his way to Raritan Valley Hospital, Pastor Ken Mart was passing the home of Anita Hoynes, the first chairperson of the Fish Food Program. He was moved to compassion when he saw people out on the lawn, packing food in paper bags for Fish clients -- in the rain! He thought there must be some way to help the people of Fish. So, he went to the church Trustees and Deacons and received approval to let Fish use the basement of Friendship Hall as their Food Room.

Eventually, the Baptist Church granted Fish, Inc. a hundred-year lease on the property, for $1 a year. In 1990, Fish began construction of a new building on the site of the former bowling alley. The building was completed in 1992. The Food Room expanded, and the Clothing Program moved from Holmes Marshall School to the first floor and part of the second floor of the new building. Fish Hospitality Program moved into the second floor.

Today the Fish, Inc. building is a very busy place. The Food and Clothing rooms are open for clients at least three days a week, and volunteers are there other hours during the week, sorting clothes, or stocking shelves, etc. . Fish Hospitality Inc. uses the offices on the second floor. Friendship Hall is used for AA meetings and as a worship site for two congregations: Jesus Lamb of God Fellowship, and Shekina First Haitian Church.*

Thanks to Rev. Ken Mart and Ned Halteman for providing historical information for this story.

A Familiar Voice in the Crowd

B. was attending "Praise in The Parking Lot," led by Zion Tabernacle of Praise*, in the parking lot between the Fish building and the First Baptist Church of New Market. Hearing a familiar voice, B. approached the Fish exhibit table. She knew, immediately, it was the voice of the very same Fish volunteer, whom B. had spoken with several times, many years ago.

B. was a single mother then, with a three year old son. They had almost nothing, and she needed help. She still remembers the kindness and care that was shown to her and to her son. When she needed a bed for her son, she got a bed. When she needed blankets, she got blankets, shoes, and sneakers. B. remembers receiving food for Thanksgiving dinner. Fish was her lifeline. "The people at Fish made me feel like I mattered," she said. "I am grateful for something so sustaining."

Years later, B. now owns a successful childcare business, her son is grown, and life is good. B. says she will always be thankful for the support she and her son received from Fish those many years ago.

We at Fish, Inc. wish everyone a very Happy Thanksgiving!
